ENROLLMENT PROVISIONS

CANCELLATION / TERMINATION POLICY

- Educational Correspondence Training School will not cancel any course or program once the signed enrollment agreement is received and accepted by all parties. If a student is terminated as a result of inadequate Academic Progress as explained in the school information, the termination will be made in writing by the school explaining the reasons for such termination. Students may file an appeal with the Director of the Educational Correspondence Training School.
- If it is found that any other person other than the students submitted any test or research paper, the student will be terminated immediately and will not be permitted to take any further courses from the Educational Correspondence Training School.
- Refunds for terminations will be calculated using the provisions in the Withdrawal and Refund Policies of ECTS.

DATE OF DETERMINATION

The date of determination of termination, for refund purposes, will be the date that the Educational Correspondence Training School receives the request of cancellation or withdrawal from the program. Withdrawals and cancellations do not need to be in writing. The date of determination may also be the date which the student is terminated, in writing, by the Educational Correspondence Training School. Termination of a student by the Educational Correspondence Training School may occur for any of the following reasons:

- It is found that another person is completing the students lessons.
- The student has failed to make tuition payments if the tuition installment payment option has been elected.
- The student fails to maintain academic progress as described in the Academic Progress section of the school information.

WITHDRAWAL AND REFUND POLICY

Educational Correspondence Training School charges tuition and fees for each Program of Study. All withdrawn or terminated students that have a tuition obligation to the school will be processed in accordance with the Pennsylvania Department of Education, State Board of Private Licensed School, 22 Pa Code, "73.132 - 73.137 in the following manner: The school shall pay any refund due within 30 days after the date of withdrawal if the student officially withdraws or is dismissed. Written notification of withdrawal is not a required condition for making refunds

Refunds will be made on the following schedules:

Cancellation Period - A student canceling within the 7th calendar day following the date of enrollment (date which the student signed the enrollment agreement) but prior to receipt by the school of the first completed home study lesson, all monies paid to the school shall be refunded.

After the Cancellation Period - After the cancellation period had passed, but before you have submitted any lessons to the school for correction, you will be charged a "registration fee" of 15% of the total program tuition or $150.00, which ever is less.

After Submission of First Lesson - If a student enrolls and withdraws or is discontinued after submission of the first completed lesson, but prior to the completion of the program, minimum refunds will be calculated as follows:

- Students will be assessed the "registration fee" as explained above in the "After the Cancellation Period" paragraph and then
- Up to and including completion of the first 10% of the program, you are obligated for 10% of the total tuition
- Beyond completion of 10% of the program and up to and including completion of 25% of the program, you are obligated for 25% of the total tuition.
- Beyond completion of 25% of the program and up to and including completion of 50% of the program, you are obligated for 50% of the total tuition
- Beyond completion of 50% of the program, you are obligated for the full tuition.

The percentage of the program completed is determined by comparing the number of completed lessons received for correction services by the school to the total number of lessons in the program. If the student has paid for the program using Master Card or Visa, cash refunds are not available. The school will credit the appropriate Master Card or Visa account.
